

Buttons

Friendly and balanced, Buttons will make a wonderful companion. She is about one year old and weighs 12 pounds. She is playful and loves her toys. Buttons also gets along well with other small dogs. She is affectionate and enjoys some cuddle time. She also likes to play games with her foster family. She rides okay in the car. She may need additional leash training as she will love exploring new places. Buttons would do well in an active all adult household or in a family with respectful children ages 8 years old and older.
