

Duke

Hello my name is Duke. I'm told I am a 4 ½ year old purebred Mini Australian Shepherd and that I am super handsome. (I am sooo overweight at 50 lbs.--I am working on that.) I have great house manners. I walk nicely on leash and love car rides...I love pretty much anything I can do with my human. I especially like to snuggle up on the couch and watch tv and I love to be groomed.

I enjoy other dog friends but am not at all good with cats. I can be very shy with new people—especially men—but I warm up really quickly with most people. I would love a home where I can have my person home all the time but am good left alone for a few hours. I would love to sleep with you but will sleep in my crate instead if you want. My foster mom says I do not really need to be crated since I am good boy.

Duke would be fine in a home where he is the only dog, but might enjoy living another dog that would be okay with his attention hog tendencies. He needs a home with a fenced yard (not invisible/electric fence) and a home with all adults or with respectful school age children; and one where he does not need to be regularly left alone for long hours without human companionship.
