

Estelle

All the "experts" think I'm about 4 months old because I still haven't lost any of my puppy teeth! I came all the way from California just to find my forever home! I LOVE to play with my squeaky toys, balls and to chew on my bully stick. I make my foster family laugh with all my silly antics and energy. I'm REALLY good at sleeping in bed with my people and don't even wake them up to go potty. I can hold it all night long until the lady of the house gets up and makes me "go potty" outside. Sometimes I get to go to friends houses and play with my other dog friends! I love to prance and show off when I go for a walk. I also really like the kids in the house I'm living with. They are a little older so when I get too excited and bite them with my sharp puppy teeth they don't get very upset. Estelle would do best in an all adult home or with children 8 years and older. Would you like to be my new family? I guarantee you'll love me!
