

Kandy

Hi, I'm Kandy! I'm a six month old, fifteen pound chiweenie mix and I'm full to the brim of love and spunk! I get along with everyone; guys, gals, kiddos, and other dogs. I am still young and can be a bit rambunctious at times, so I need all of my forever family members to know how to help me with boundaries. I'm still learning some leash manners, I'm doing better each day. I've never had a home before, so I'm working on things like how to sit and stay and how to use my inside voice, but I'm doing GREAT! My foster mom says my name should be either "You're Wild" or "Helo" because I love to play with my foster brother, another small dog like me, and my tail doesn't wag so much as it moves in big circles so fast that my bum takes flight like a helicopter! I'm really kind and I love nothing more than a big cuddle puddle before bed (where I like to be under the covers next to you.. or on top of your legs or feet or even your face!) I'm looking for a moderately active family who will bring me with them on adventures and help me be the best girl I can be. Kandy would do best in a home with active adults or a family with respectful children 8 years and older. If you think you are the right fit for me, please apply to meet me today! Bark!
