

Latte

Latte is quite the little character. She is about one year old and 11 pounds. Latte is a very busy girl - smart and loves to play with her toys and play fetch and tug of war. She rides well in the car, likes playing with other dogs of all sizes as long as they are calm and confident types. She really likes her walks and she can walk a long distance. Latte needs a bit more work walking on leash without pulling but she is getting there. She still has that puppy energy and when it is hot, one of her favorite things to do is play with ice cubes.. She is always entertaining. Latte also enjoys her quiet snuggle time with her people. Latte would do best in an active all adult household or in a family with respectful children ages 10 years and up.
