

Lolo

This adorable little guy is Lolo. He is the sweetest little boy and plays calmly with his friends and wants to cuddle all the time. He's very smart and curious and will jump any gate you put in front of him just to figure out the fun things on the other side. He likes to stay warm with a sweater and loves to sleep on top of the floor heater vent. He's amazing with other dogs and children. He's pretty small so the big ones that want to play scare him a bit. He's almost potty trained but he doesn't know to go to the door just yet so with patience and consistency he'll get it in no time.

Lolo is about 5 months old and weighs about 15 lbs. He needs a home with a fenced yard (not invisible/electric fence) and with someone who is home more than not so they can help perfect his potty training. He'll do best in a home with all adults or one with school age children.
