

Max and Maggie

Meet Max & Maggie the sweetest bonded duo. Everyone that meets these 2 cuties instantly falls in love with them. They are each just a little different personality wise, with Max being a little more shy than Maggie. Maggie is more confident and therefore more outgoing. They are both very loving dogs and definitely want to be in your lap. They are looking for their forever person, and will quickly become your lifelong buddies. They are good on leash and great in the car. They are fine with other dogs and cats. They would do best with a fenced in yard and respectful children 8 years and older.
