

Tobie

This is Tobie a sweet funny and very loving boy. His birthday is December 25, 2017 so he's almost a year old. He loves to play fetch and tug a war he's the happiest when he's playing with his canine foster brothers or playing fetch. Tobie is house broken and crate trained he has great recall and listens really well. He will chew if bored but hasn't chewed anything but his toys. This beautiful boy had a rough start to life and doesn't trust people right away and does get scared when out in the public due to his trust issues, it took him a day to warm up to us but now he gives hugs and kisses and is the sweetest boy ever. He needs a forever home that has older kids or a very active couple who will continue to help him trust humans. He likes to chase things so cats probably not a good match. Can you help this beautiful boy live a great life, he got a great personality and you will have a companion for life!!!
